EVENTS

September 24 - October 1, 2016

Saturday, September 24, 10:00am-4:00pm, Collingswood Community Center
Crossword Puzzle Tournament. Crossword puzzle enthusiasts are invited to solve unpublished crossword puzzles for cash prizes. Open to individuals and teams of two. The tournament will be hosted by Evan Birnholz, Washington Post Sunday Edition writer and constructor. Puzzles have been provided by Will Shortz, The New York Times crossword puzzle editor. Spectators are welcome and can play along with copies of the puzzles. Advance registration is suggested. See tournament details at collingswoodbookfestival.com or Pchamberl@verizon.net

Monday, September 26, 7:00pm, Collingswood Library
Town Book Discussion. Participate in a discussion of When Books Went to War by Molly Guptill Manning. This New York Times best seller is an uplifting account of a little known chapter in World War II history when the U.S. government sent millions of small, light weight editions of books to service members all over the world. The books not only entertained members of the armed forces, but inspired them to keep fighting against the Nazis. Molly Guptill Manning will speak at the Book Festival on Saturday, October 1 at 1:00pm in Tent 1.

Wednesday, September 28, 10:00am-4:00pm, Collingswood Community Center
Sages of Ages 10th Anniversary! A fun-filled afternoon featuring authors, games and prizes for attendees aged 50 plus. Presenters are Dr. Michael Rudnick, author of medical mystery novels and Sue Verzella, president of the Friends of the Collings-Knight House. Individuals and groups are welcome. Free. Reservations suggested. 856-854-3705
